

ELEMENTS OF BUPRENORPHINE TREATMENT RESOURCES

SAMHSA Resources

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, through their Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), includes the mission of promoting community-based substance abuse treatment and recovery services for individuals and families. SAMHSA's goals include improving access, reducing barriers, and promoting high quality, effective treatment and recovery services.

- SAMHSA's Buprenorphine Physician and Treatment Program Locator A directory of treatment programs and providers authorized to treat patients with buprenorphine (Source: SAMHSA)
- SAMHSA Medication Assisted Treatment Website Provides information about buprenorphine, including resources, the waiving process, DATA 2000, and the latest news (Source: SAMHSA)
- SAMHSA Provider Waiver Qualifications Information from the CSAT Buprenorphine Information Center on the criteria required to receive a waiver under DATA 2000 (Source: SAMHSA)

Additional Resources

- Decisions in Recovery: Treatment for Opioid Use Disorder [PDF] Booklet that helps patients and providers decide which treatment is appropriate for them (Source: SAMHSA)
- The ASAM National Practice Guideline \(Medication Assisted Treatment\) [PDF] Outlines the 2015 guidelines for assessment and pharmacological treatment of patients with opioid use disorder (Source: ASAM)